

Consulate General of India
Sydney

Expression of Interest (EOI)

The Consulate General of India in Sydney intends to constitute a panel of eminent lawyers / firms to provide legal assistance / services to Indian nationals in distress. The legal assistance / services to be provided would include the following:

- (a) appearing before court on behalf of Indian national in distress
- (b) ailing bail applications;
- (c) petitions for remission of sentence;
- (d) review of sentence;
- (e) mercy petitions;
- (f) providing legal advice;
- (g) filling of civil/criminal suits in local court
- (h) providing legal advice on immigration issues, etc.

2. EOI is invited from lawyers / firms based in NSW and South Australia, having requisite experience in above mentioned areas and having knowledge of Indian criminal and civil laws.

3. The EOI should include brief profile, experience and rates (hourly / case basis / etc) charged for various legal services offered. Interested lawyers / firms may forward their EOI latest by 24th January 2018 to community.sydney@mea.gov.in or through post to:

S. K. Verma
Consul (C&CW)
Consulate General of India
Level 1, 265 Castlereagh Street
Sydney 2000